2	Celebrations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Small group instruction is going well during Skills and ALL Block. Students rotate around to the teacher groups. ● Morning meetings are used to build strong classroom relationships and environments. ● Extra Award goes to staff members who go above and beyond. ● Behavior support with Garrison to help with students and families.
3	SIT Feedback <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Curriculum night ● School Supply Kits ● Upcoming Events Q2 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Curriculum Night - Suggestions - Hicks was only able to make it to one curriculum night because they were at the book fair. They were able to get ideas of what they were learning at the moment, but didn't gather any ideas of how to help at school. Next time, give more hands-on activities or resources for parents to use at home. Maybe next time, do a virtual Curriculum night with the details of what they will be learning throughout the year. Then do a hands-on night later throughout the year. ● School Supply Kit - We make $3.00 on every box sold. Teachers and parents appreciated that the supplies were already at the school. Grayum sent parents a thank you note to let them know that she received the supplies. Parents think it actually is cheaper and convenient. Do a mid-year restock? For next year, increase the extra fund to $5.00. ● Upcoming Events <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Class Spelling Bee - 11/12 ○ School Wide Spelling Bee - 11/25 ○ District in December ○ Send home the spelling lists
4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Committee Updates <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Equity ○ Academic ○ Student Culture ○ Staff Culture 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Equity - Pirate Fest 4:30-5:30 - Trick or treat, face painting, t-shirts to sell as a fundraiser. Grade levels will decorate a car and dress up. Need candy donations. Great feedback on Hispanic Heritage Slides. ● Academic - Constitution Day - district provided materials. Bill of rights and classroom social contract. SAIL ceremony and the awards that we will give out (academic excellence, reading and math growth, pirate award, etc.) Different dates and times for the ceremony to stagger. Also, student work is displayed in the classroom. Let parents know that their child will be receiving an award. Parent feedback while they are

		walking around. Students can take their little card with their comments home. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Student Culture -Worked to implement safety patrol. 5th graders are working hard at the car pool, in the hallways and in the cafeteria. Mid-quarter celebration on the early release day and watched a G rated movie. Next celebration is on Nov 1st - Glow Day party. ● Staff Culture - starting off the year with a bang - All Staff filled out Staff Favorites form. Monthly table of treats, this month fall themed treats. Just started “You’ve Been Booed”. The Shout Out board and the chance to get a gift card.
5	Title I Title IX	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Title 1 Funds - Had to have an informational night for our families. McAvoy discussed at Curriculum night how our funds are allocated. $305,000 pays for BMT, TA, Teacher and Interpreter positions. Professional development, supplies and materials. Student agendas and technology. ● Title IX - No discrimination student, parent or staff. All classes received lessons and completed the lessons.. Parents had the opportunity to opt out of the lesson. Only 23 opted out. Teachers bring the situations to admin and they investigate. 1 current investigation.
