Title IX Quarter 2 Update Kim Young	☐ SCMS of SLT Title IX Slides Quarter 1-2024-2025 Ms. Young presented the slides. Question was asked about parent involvement in the process because 'parent' was not mentioned much in the presentation. Clarification was given that parents of complainant and respondent are notified at the beginning of the process, complainant parents have input into how to proceed (formal complaint vs. supportive measures) and parents are given an outcome letter at the end of the process.
PTO Report Janelle Davis	Update from Ms. Davis: PTO Board is not full, but the board is very active and productive. Helping Hands: PTO is at $1985 for Helping Hands. Helping Hands provides money to SCMS families that are in need, such as gas cards, Visa cards to pay bills. Ends November 18. November 20 is Spirit Night - Tacos 4 Life - fundraiser. A/B Honor Roll - Arboretum Chick-Fil-A sandwich coupons.
Principal's Report Lisa Bailes	Staff Celebration for Exceeding Growth- Catered lunch Nov. 5 Shocking Shocker &amp; Shocker Standout - opportunities to recognize students. Infinitive Campus - will replace PowerSchool next summer. Question came up about iReady. Some students are taking too long to achieve 80%, and therefore spend too much time. Ms. Clarke and Ms. Young will look into this issue.
